1) Contestants will compete against each other and the clock. The object is to eat as many sandwiches as possible the fastest in a 3 minute time frame. The contestant that eats the most pulled pork and bun, wins Old Carolina free barbecue for a year.

Only Water may be consumed during the competition.

2) Contestants must not touch any ribs until the starting signal.

3) Sandwich will be counted as eaten when full bun and meat is not on the presenting plate - Sauce may be put on sandwich prior to contest if desired by competitor.

4) Final amount of sandwiches eaten will determine 1st, 2nd, 3rd and 4th place.

5) Contestants must stop eating at the ending signal, to be announced prior to beginning the contest.

6) Contestants will be given 10 pulled pork sandwiches to begin with. Winner(s) will be determined by the person who completely consumes the whole sandwich bun included in the least amount of time. All trays will be inspected at end of contest.

7) Contestants must observe Picnic Style Rules, which means the sandwiches will be eaten according to tradition and meat and buns must be eaten with tongue, lips and mouth and not in any other fashion, (ie knives, forks). Should an Eater be observed violating Picnic Style Rules he/she will be deemed in performance of a "picnic profanity" and will be disqualified. The use of utensils is not allowed. Separating the meat and bun is allowed but must be done on the area eating is taking place. 11) Each contestant will continue to eat until they are out of sandwiches or the ending signal sounds.

12) In the event of a tie, the will be determined by a two-minute "PULLED PORK-OFF."
